Matts' Picks

A special selection of our favorite whites

Nicolas Feuillatte, Brut Champagne, France 68
Crisp fruit aromas of white peach, pear & apple

By no means a small operation, the Nicolas Feuillatte brand has all the accoutrements of a cutting-edge production facility while maintaining a strong commitment to the 'human touch' element; a combination which shines in this elegant sparkler

Ste. Michelle, Eroica Riesling, Walla Walla, WA 44
Sweet lime and mandarin orange aromas with subtle mineral notes

Chateau Ste. Michelle has combined Old World winemaking traditions with New World innovation. In fact, they are one of the few premium wineries in the world with two state-of-the-art wineries, one for red & one for white.

Stag’s Leap Wine Cellars, ‘Karia’ Chardonnay, Napa Valley, CA 64
Notes of caramel & honey, a sprinkle of nutmeg and the full ripeness of melon & apple

Signature style has often been described as "an iron fist in a velvet glove", a reference to the artful balance between ripeness & restraint, softness & structure that yields Napa Valley wines of exceptional beauty and long life.

Hestia Cellars, Proprietary White Blend, Columbia Valley, WA 38
Sauvignon Blanc, Dry Riesling, Chardonnay; grapefruit & lemon with herbaceous undertones

Hestia is a family owned & operated winery, allowing them to be intimate with each & every barrel of wine in their cellar. They have vigilantly selected each vineyard sit to ensure that it allows them to craft wines that express the best Washington State has to offer.

Mark Ryan, Viognier, Columbia Valley, WA 63
Ripe peach, pineapple, honeysuckle; medium-bodied and elegant

A local favorite! Founded by Mark McNeilly in 1999 with the goal of making the best wines in Washington, this winery continually provide vintage after vintage, surpassing their predecessors while faithfully representing the vineyards from whence they come

Efestē, ‘Lola’ Chardonnay, Columbia Valley, WA 78
Bartlett pear, lemon curd with a creamy texture, good acidity

Nestled in a long family tradition of home winemaking, this Woodinville gem has lately become much more than ‘garage’ wine. While their hands-off, old-world techniques still nod to the winery’s roots, you’ll find their wines quite a bit more refined these days!

Matts’ Picks

A special selection of our favorite reds

Erath, ‘Prince Hill’ Pinot Noir, Dundee Hills, OR  88
~ Single vineyard, red currant, cranberry, hint of cinnamon

One of Oregon’s wine pioneers, Dick Erath, has been perfecting his Pinot varietals since his first vintage in 1965. His tenacity in the uphill battle against this stubborn grape has since inspired many other leading winemakers to follow suit in the hills of Oregon.

Pearl & Stone, ‘Wandering’ Red, Yakima Valley, WA  66
~ Bing cherries, plum, rhubarb, vanilla and dried flowers with soft tannins

Pearl and Stone Wine Co was born from the art of teaching, the joy of learning, and the love of wine. A partnership of three families, deeply rooted in the Snoqualmie Valley, and brought together by three women, this wine company is equally committed to family, fun, and great juice! Amidst raising families in the Snoqualmie Valley, Pearl & Stone Wine Co became a reality in 2013 and continues to bring us irresistible wines.

Stevens Winery, ‘Timley’ Malbec, Yakima Valley, WA  66
~ Good texture, smooth, spicy, medium bodied with a zing of raspberry & cherry

Founded in 2002 by Tim and Paige Stevens, whose passion is to produce wines with a distinctive character while highlighting the exceptional fruit of Yakima Valley.

Mark Ryan, ‘Lonely Heart’ Reserve Cabernet, WA  180
~ crisp black raspberry, cassis, violets & graphite; fine tannins, impeccably balanced

A local favorite! Founded by Mark McNeillly in 1999 with the goal of making the best wines in Washington, this winery continually provide vintage after vintage, surpassing their predecessors while faithfully representing the vineyards from whence they come. Lonely Heart received 95 points from The Wine Advocate in 2016.

Spring Valley, ‘Frederick’ Red Blend, Walla Walla, WA  82
~ Bordeaux style blend; blackberry, peppercorn, big tannins

First planted in 1993 on family land dating back to the 1880's, Spring Valley Vineyard is as much a story of heartache as success. The winery’s first winemaker—Devin Derby, great-grandson of the family patriarch, Uriah—met an untimely death in 2004. Still, the wines continue to be harvested, pressed and fermented with the same commitment to upholding a tradition of perseverance and love, each named after members of the family tree.

Efestē, ‘Big Papa’, Columbia Valley, WA  115
~ Full bodied, well-knit tannins & bright acidity

Nestled in a long family tradition of home winemaking, this Woodinville gem has lately become much more than ‘garage’ wine. While their hands-off, old-world techniques still nod to the winery’s roots, you’ll find their wines quite a bit more refined these days!
